

Research Assistant for Africa Education and Youth Development

Project Title	Research Assistant for Africa Education and Youth Development
Project Summary	The USAID, Africa Bureau, Office of Sustainable Development, Education Division is seeking a post-graduate or advanced undergraduate student to conduct research and create an internal knowledge catalog of basic and higher education outcomes.
Country	United States
Agency	Agency for International Development
DoS Office	N/A
Post	N/A
Section	N/A
Number of Interns	2

Project Description

The USAID, Africa Bureau, Office of Sustainable Development, Education Division is seeking a graduate or advanced undergraduate student to conduct research and create an internal knowledge catalog of basic and higher education outcomes, qualitative and quantitative data studies and best practices. Topics will be assigned based on issues encountered by USAID in the field of education and youth development. The intern(s) will conduct research, organize a literature review, create a virtual library of knowledge from non-government agencies and any additional duties as assigned by the supervisors. This internship is ideal for students interested in international education policy or the sub-Saharan Africa region.

Desired Skills Interests

Additional Information

- Preference will be given to graduate students, but advanced undergraduate students are welcome to apply.
- Most areas of research will be on basic and higher education issues and positive youth development, but there are additional opportunities to pursue similar areas of research.

-Any documents uploaded to USAJOBS will not be provided to the reviewers at the time of your application.

Please enter all information that you wish the reviewers to consider in the online forms.

-No prior knowledge of USAID is required, however applicants should have a demonstrable interest in international development, education policy or the African region.

Language Requirements

None